SUPERVISOR DIMITRIJEVIC TO HOLD LISTENING SESSIONS

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Marina Dimitrijevic will host her first listening session on July 15 in the South Shore Park Pavilion, located at 2900 S. South Shore Drive from 6 – 7 p.m.

The listening session will provide an opportunity for Supervisor Dimitrijevic to join Milwaukee County Parks staff in presenting "Parks 101", an outline of the structure and operations of the Milwaukee County Parks System and its direction for the future. Dimitrijevic will also address questions from those in attendance about any other Milwaukee County government issue.

A second listening session has also been scheduled for July 28 at the 55 Plus Senior Center located at 2414 W. Mitchell Street from 6 – 7 p.m. to accommodate residents living near the southwest side of the 4th District.

Milwaukee County Supervisor Dimitrijevic represents the 4th Supervisory District, which includes Bay View, the Layton Boulevard West neighborhood, and a portion of the south side between Chase Avenue and 27th Street.
